Keep Them Turning Pages - Mike Dellosso (10:30-11:15)
Two important aspects of writing thrillers: suspense and villains.

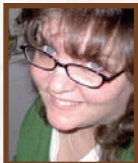

What's So Bad about Old Fashioned? - Cindy Sproles (11:15-12:00)
Unlike old bread, some methods of writing never grow stale.
The old school method of hook, book, look, and took.

Show, Tell, Talk - Tim Shoemaker (12:30-1:15)
Tim won't tell you how to improve your manuscript, he'll show you.

Writing with Banana Peels - Jim Watkins (1:00-1:45)
The principles and pratfalls of writing humor.

Rules of Engagement - Suzanne Kuhn (1:45-2:30)
A practical, hands-on approach for writers in any stage of the process to maximize interactions and promote themselves.

How to Be a Successful New Illustrator - Kim Sponaugle (3:00-3:45)
What Kim wished she had known fresh out of art school on getting started in picture book illustration.

Will They Read On? - Joyce Magnin (3:45-4:30)
Joyce will read your first page, make comments, and help you write a first page that will pull in any reader. Bring your first page.

Fairies and Elves and Dwarves, Oh My! - Pam Halter (4:30-5:15)
How well do you know fairies, elves, dwarves, wizards, pixies, ogres, or trolls? Pam will help you get up close and personal with all the fun fantasy folk you can think up!

*Thursday Specials for All Christians
Not Just Writers*

Expanding Your Influence

with Dr. Harold Arnold Jr. - 10:00am to noon
Author and Founder of The Pursuit of Influence

Through a practical and insightful ten-step process, this workshop encourages and challenges Christ followers to focus intently on building an effective platform that honors God, enriches your community, and excites your personal passions.

Postmodernism, Worldview, and You!

with Dr. J.B. Hixson - 1:00 to 3:00 pm
Author and President of Not By Works Ministries

What does the search for Truth look like in a truthless age? We'll dive into the way in which postmodern thought has influenced our worldview today and how Christians should respond.

Dealing with Our Cultural Crisis

with Rick Marschall - 3:30 to 5:30 pm
Author, Historian, Monday Morning Music Ministry Blog

The decline in morals and attacks on Christians are neither isolated, nor can they be ignored by any Christian. Learn direct and subtle ways to take a stand.
