

The Greater Philly Christian Writers Conference

Teens Write!

August 1, 2013, 10am - 6 pm
Cairn University - Langhorne, PA

You've heard the question: How do you eat an elephant? One bite at a time!
This year's Teens Write answers a similar question: How do you write a short story, novel, article, devotion, screenplay?

One Word at a Time

Character, Know Thyself
So you think you know your characters, really?
Joyce Magnin

Making It BIG in the Movies

Lots of instruction, discussion, training exercises, and critiques.

Dr. Ted Baehr

Writing Devotions

Writing devotions for kids and teens.

Cindy Sproles

Getting into Character

Discover the secrets of effectively using Point of View (POV).

Eddie Jones

Get Published NOW!

From the author of 30+ books who published his first manuscript as a pre-teen.

Bob Hostetler

Make a Scene!

Enhance your characters, increase tension, and deepen your plot.

Barb Haley

Strengthen Your Writing

How to use strong verbs, tight dialogue, less telling, and more action.

Donna Brennan

Humor: Is God Laughing with You?

The difference between sarcasm, mockery, & humor.
Come prepared to laugh!

Emily Chase

You Talkin' to Me?

Common mistakes and how to avoid them in writing dialogue.

Bonnie Calhoun

Coordinator

Available in evening to read first page of your manuscript.

Pam Halter

Bonus: Appointment with an author or editor.
Tip: Cindy Sproles needs writers for DevoKids.com
and iBogat.com. Chris Richards represents Starsongs, a magazine written for kids by kids!

For more info and to register go to www.writehisanswer.com/Philadelphia.

Cost is $55 through July 15, $65 after July 15, and includes pizza feast.