Books (as well as tapes, videos, and special products) authored by faculty and conferees will be sold for a 20% consignment fee at the conference. Prices must be clearly marked on each item. Please check one of the following.

- I will bring books I've authored with me.

Your Help Needed: Book sales help us meet the budget plus provide continued learning for the conferees. We encourage you to borrow books from the book table for "show and tell" with your class.
